

Anna Englehardt

machinic.info

Anna Engelhardt is the alias of a video artist and writer. Her investigative practice follows the traces of material violence, focusing on what could be seen as the 'ghost' of information. Engelhardt has shown her work at transmediale, HKW, Berlin; ICA, London; Kyiv Biennial; Biennial TEA Tenerife; National Gallery of Art, Vilnius; BFI London Film Festival; Henie Onstad Triennial for Photography and New Media, Oslo; VO Curations, London. Her texts are an integral part of her practice, and have been published on e-flux, The Funambulist, NERO and Spector Books, among others.

Jameisha Prescod

jameishaprescod.com

Jameisha Prescod is an artist-filmmaker and writer from South London. Their work explores how culture, identity, black history and colonialism influence the way illnesses are experienced. Jameisha was included on the 2025 Forbes 30 Under 30 list for art and culture and has had work exhibited at the Venice Arte Biennale, London Film Festival and Unlimited Festival.

Hantao Li

hantaoli.com

Hantao Li is a visual artist and architectural designer, currently completing his master's degree at the Architectural Association. Working across architecture and moving image, his practice explores the entangled realities of society, technology, and infrastructure through radical, speculative narratives. His work has been exhibited and screened at Simultan Festival, Beijing International Short Film Festival, UCCA, House of European Institutes, and Derby QUAD.

Lucy Rose Shaftain-Fenner

lucyrose.info

Lucy Rose Shaftain-Fenner is a documentary filmmaker from Essex. Her practice explores themes including lived experiences, LGBTQIA+ rights and activism, empowerment, intersectional identities, queerness, neurodivergence and mental health. Her work has been seen at Norwich University of the Arts for Norwich Queer Fest, at TRANSLations Transgender Film Festival in Seattle and at Out on Film in Atlanta. Her work has also been seen in Queer Youth Art Collective's group exhibition, 'Dream This Silly' at Queer Circle in London and in Dreamy Place's Night Watch Queer Film Trail in Brighton.

Morisha Moodley

morishamoodley.com

Morisha Moodley is a moving image artist who works across video, installation, and text, examining the entanglement of race, queerness, disability, and theology through these forms. Their work has been exhibited internationally, including at Hyde Park Art Center, London Short Film Festival, Kasseler Dokefest and Global Citizen. Amongst other awards, Morisha is a recipient of an AXS Film Fund grant (2025) and a Develop Your Creative Practice grant from Art Council England (2022).

Mahdy Abo Bahat

gravegood.com

Mahdy Abo Bahat is an Egyptian artist-filmmaker based between London and Cairo. His fixation with moving image stems from a need to document whilst witnessing the Egyptian upheaval in 2011. He is committed to crafting hauntologies that summon beings, worlds, and times deemed immemorial by the ruling discourse. Mahdy's work has been shown in Cinema du Reel, Oberhausen International Short Film festival, 25FPS Film Festival, Experimental Film and Video Festival in Seoul and Documenta Madrid.